

Political Donations Policy

Argosy

Purpose

This policy outlines Argosy's position on political donations to ensure transparency, integrity, and alignment with our values.

Policy Statement

Argosy does not make political donations. This includes direct or indirect contributions to political parties, candidates, elected officials, political campaigns, or any organisation whose primary purpose is to influence political outcomes.

Scope

This policy applies to all Argosy entities, employees, contractors, and representatives acting on behalf of the company.

Definitions

- Political donation: Any monetary or in-kind contribution intended to support a political party, candidate, or campaign.
- Indirect contribution: Includes sponsorships, memberships, or payments to third parties that may be used for political purposes.

Review

This policy will be reviewed biennially by the Board, or more frequently if required, to ensure it remains appropriate and aligned with Argosy's governance framework.
